INDEX.

Abridged Report Appears, Later: The, 72.
Absolute Majority Method, The, 49.
Adulterated Food Bearing Government Inspection Stamp, 306.
Albertson, Ralph, on the National Federation for People's Rule, 423.
Alien, The Transformation of the, into the American Citizen, 320.
Allen, Arthur M., A Criticism of Mr. Grimke's Paper, 127.
Allen, Stephen H., Stock Gamblers as Managers of Railroads, 272.
America, The Most Dangerous Criminals in, 644.
American Citizen, The Transformation of the Alien into the, 320.
American Literature, The Spirit of, 121.
American Municipal Life, Recent Happenings in, 92.
Analysis of the Result, An, 541.
Anglo-Saxon Crime, The, 373.
Armour's Canned Goods Officially Exposed, Character of, 305.
Art for Moral Progress, An Artist Who Believes in, 136.
Artist's Message on Christ and Conventional Christianity, An, 248.
Aspects of Contemporary Fiction, 1.
Australian Artist Who Believes in Art for Moral Progress, An, 136.
Autocracy and Class-Rule, Senator Lodge as an Upholder of, 539.
Ayacucho, The Spanish Waterloo of South America, 255.
Baker, Robert, Why He Should be Elected to Congress, 549.
Bates, William W., The Cause and Cure of Our Marine Decay, 265.
Beef-Packers' Meat Products, Wholesale Condemnation of, in Pennsylvania, 305.
Beef-Trust, The Plutocratic Press Becomes a Voice for the, 67.
Beef-Trust's Crime Against the People, Further Revelations of the, 303.
Bennett, John W., Common Ground for Socialist and Individualist, 157.
Benson, Allan L., on Public Ownership, 552; Bankers Oppose Postal Savings-Banks: We Also Understand that Burglars are Opposed to Having Police, 552; The Detroit United Railway Company Bribing Detroit Newspapers to Get Its Street-Railway Franchises Extended, 553; Public Ownership versus Private Ownership of Public Utilities, 555; Mr. Bryan's Logic Must Make Him a Socialist Unless He or Someone Else Can Destroy the Trusts, 556; on Secretary Root's Baseless Attack on Mr. Hearst, 650.
Berlin, The University of, and the Proposed Changes in the German System of National Education, 345.
Bisbee, Robert E., on Progress in Theological Thought, 660.
Bishop's Ordination, The, 633.
Books of the Day, 103, 215, 330, 439, 569, 670.
Book-Studies, 97, 202, 320, 428, 557, 661.
Brazier, Samuel, The Primary Cause of Alternate Activity and Depression in Trade, 292.
Bribery, A Cure for Municipal, 289; by Pass, Attempted, 411.
Bringing of the Kingdom, The, 631.
British Egypt, 41, 162.
Britt, Gisel Dittrick, The Bishop's Ordination, 633.
Broad Aspects of Race-Suicide, 607.
Bryan, Mr., and the Presidency, 189; The Real Friends of, 189; on Private Monopoly, 190; and the Trusts, Secretary Taft's False Witness in Regard to, 308; His Triumphant Home-Coming and His Great Address at Madison Square Garden, 420; The True Secret of His Great Popularity with the People, 645.
Bryan, Hon. William J., Individualism Through Socialism: A Reply to, 359.
Bryan and La Follette, The Nation-Wide Enthusiasm for, Symptomatic of the Great Popular Awakening, 299.
Bryan's Candidacy, The Honest and Dishonest Advocates of, 189.
Buckman, Williamson, Picturesque Rothenburg, 128.
Bushby, Rev. William R., The Zeit-Geist and the Miraculous Conception, 480.
Butler, Maynard, The University of Berlin and the Proposed Changes in the German System of National Education, 345; Concerning Those Who Work, 487.
Byron: A Study in Heredity, 175.
Campaign Against the Wholesale Poisoners of a Nation's Food, The, 66.
Cannon, Speaker, as the Friend of Privileged Interests and the Money-Controlled Machines, 307.
Capitalistic Rule, New Zealand Under, 199.
Carlton, Frank T., Broad Aspects of Race-Suicide, 607.
Carman, Albert R., Nude Lips, 638.
Cause and Cure of Our Marine Decay, The, 265.
Chicago Bank Robbery, The Latest, from the Inside: A National Scandal, 420.
Child, The Right of the, Not to be Born, 125.
Child-Labor, 584.
Child-Labor, Compulsory Education and Race-Suicide, 35.
Chinamen, Shall Educated, Be Welcomed to Our Shores? 506.
Christ and Conventional Christianity, An Artist's Message on, 248.
Church and State in France, 626.
Churchill, Winston, George Fred. Williams and: Two New England Defenders of the People's Cause, 405; 410; The Exposures of, are of National Concern, 410; The Master-Issues Clearly Stated by, 411; and the New Hampshire Convention, 549.
Civic Righteousness, Jail Sentences for Rebaters and Ice-Barons a Hopeful Inauguration of the Campaign for, 194; the Union of the Forces of, in Pennsylvania, 300.
Civil Marriages, The Recognition of, by the Spanish Government, 426.
Clark, Chief Justice, Some Urgent Constitutional Changes Demanded by, 81.
Class-Rule, A Practical Illustration of the Vital Difference Between a Free State and, 422.

Clemenceau, Jaurès and, on the Demands of Socialism and Radical Democracy, 195; Selects a Progressive Democratic Cabinet, 659.
Cockerell, Wilmatte Porter, The Parting of the Ways, 55; Tried by Fire, 178.
College Coöperative Stores in America, 201.
Colorado, The Economic Struggle in, 375.
Colorado Conflict and Its Grave Significance, The, 527.
Colorado Democracy Drives the Corruptionists and Grafters from the Party, 528.
Colorado Supreme Court, A Leading Republican Journal on the, 309; A Great Law Journal Arraigns the, 311.
Comments, Notes and, 112, 223, 335, 447, 575, 689.
Common Ground for Socialist and Individualist, 157.
Comparative Anatomy, A Waning of the Interest in, in This Country, 629.
Comstock, Mr., Not Wanted at the Mothers' Congress, 656.
Concerning Those Who Work, 487.
Condemnation of Beef-Packers' Meat Products in Pennsylvania, Wholesale, 305.
Congressional Election, The, 647.
Constitutional Changes Demanded by Chief Justice Clark, Some Urgent, 81.
Constitutional Convention, A Distinguished Jurist's Statesmanlike Plea for a, 78.
Consumption of Wealth: Individual and Collective, 497.
Contemporary Fiction, Aspects of, 1.
Conviction of the New York Central Railroad and Its Significance, The, 642.
Coöperation in Great Britain, The Healthy Growth of, 556; Advance in Voluntary, 200.
Coöperative Society, The Magnificent Success of the English, 200.
Coöperative Stores in America, College, 201.
Corporate Wealth, The Nullification of the Ends of Free Government Through Judicial Usurpations in the Interests of, 309.
Corporation and Boss-Rule, The Popular Revolt Against, 299.
Corporation Collar, Politicians Wearing the, Fight Shy of the Statesman With a Conscience, 412.
Corporation Contempt of the People and Their Government, Aided by the Courts, a Striking Case of, 416.
Corporation Press, Professor Parsons on a Recent Municipal Contest and the Tactics of the, 550; The Delirium Tremens of the, 550.
Corruptionists and Grafters, Colorado Democracy Drives the, from the Party, 528.
Corrupt Wealth, The Latest Example of the Morally Degrading Influence of, in the Educational World, 73.
Costliness of War, The, 337.
Court is King, The, 118.
Courts, the Plutocracy and the People, The; or, The Age-Long Attempt to Bulwark Privilege and Despotism, 84; The Criticism of, by Statesmen and the Judiciary, 85.
Crane, George, A Cure for Municipal Bribery, 289.
Criminals, The Most Dangerous, in Ameriea, 644.
Crosby, Ernest, British Egypt, 41, 162.
Cross, Ira, The Direct Primary, 52.
Cummins, Governor Albert B.: A Statesman Who Places the Interests of the People Above the Demands of Privileged Classes, 38.
Cure for Municipal Bribery, A, 289.
Day, Chancellor, His Attack on the President and Mr. Hearst, 74.
Degradation, Social, 192.
Delaware, Direct-Legislation Triumphs in, 650.
Delirium Tremens of the Corporation Press, 550.
Democratic Party, The Present Battle Between Democracy and Plutocracy in the, 405; in Massachusetts, 418.
Democratic Progress, An American Journalist on New Zealand's Contribution to, Under Premier Seddon, 199.
Democracy, A Vital Service to, 83; The French Election Another Great Triumph for Progressive, 96; Triumphant; or the Overthrow of Privileged Classes by Popular Rule, 186; of Darkness: A Fruit of Materialistic Commercialism, 191; in the New World, The Renaissance of, 299; and Plutocracy, The Present Battle Between, in the Democratic Party, 405; and Plutocracy, The Present Battle Between, in the Democratic Party in Massachusetts, 418; Leaders of True, 406; and Plutocracy, The Clear-Cut Issue Between, 527.
Democracy's Lost Leader, Premier Ricard Seddon:, 196.
Denver Election, The: The Latest Illustration of Colossal Frauds and Criminality on the Part of Private Corporations Seeking Public Franchises, 92.
Detroit United Railway Company Bribing Detroit Newspapers to Get Its Street Railway Franchises Extended, 553.
Diaz, Porfirio: The Maker of Modern Mexico, 661.
Dickinson, Thomas, William Morris and Esthetic Socialism, 613.
Direct-Legislation, A Primer of, 45; A Practical Demonstration of the Unsoundness of the Arguments Against, 186.
Direct-Legislation Triumphs in Delaware, 650.
Direct Primary, The, 52.
Dreyfus, The Vindication of, 314.
Drunkards, Judge William Jefferson Pollard: A Practical Idealist Who is Achieving a Great Work in Redeeming, 14.
Eads, George W., N. O. Nelson, Practical Coöperator, and the Great Work He is Accomplishing for Human Upliftment, 463.
Economic Struggle in Colorado, The, 375.
Economics of Jesus, 234.
Education, The University of Berlin and the Proposed Changes in the German System of National, 345.
Egypt, British, 41, 162.
Election, The, 646; The Congressional, 647; The New York, 648.
Elliot, John C., Our Next Ice-Age, 148.
England's Revenue from Her Income-Tax, 659.
English Coöperative Society, The Magnificent Success of the, 200.
Episcopal Church, Heresy in the, 370.
Esthetic Socialism, William Morris and, 613.
Evil Results Already Seen, 544.
Feudalism of Privilege, Fruits of the, 414.
Fiction, Aspects of Contemporary, 1.
Finland, Universal Suffrage in, 195.
Fire, Tried by, 178.
Fiscal Reforms, Radical, 319.
Flower, B. O., Judge William Jefferson Pollard: A Practical Idealist Who is Achieving a Great

Work in Redeeming Drunkards, 14; Edward W. Redfield: An Artist of Winter-Locked Nature, 20; In the Mirror of the Present, 61, 186, 299, 405, 527, 642; Book-Studies, 97, 202, 320, 428, 557, 661; Books of the Day, 103, 215, 330, 439, 569, 670; Notes and Comments, 112, 223, 335, 447, 575, 689; Muck-Shielding the Hope of the Thieves and Corruptionists, 61; The Campaign Against the Wholesale Poisoners of a Nation's Food, 66; The Jungle Causes the President to Investigate Packingtown, 66; The Plutocratic Press Becomes a Voice for the Beef-Trust, 67; The Report of the President's Investigating Committee, 68; Mr. Sinclair's Second Statement to the Public, 69; The New York World on One Phase of the Srandal, 71; What Will Be the Outcome? 71; Later: The Abridged Report Appears, 72; The Latest Example of the Morally-Degrading Influence of Corrupt Wealth in the Educational World, 73; Chancellor Day's Attack on the President and Mr. Hearst, 74; A Fundamental Thinker on Free Government and How to Preserve It, 76; A Distinguished Jurist's Statesmanlike Plea for a Constitutional Convention, 78; Some Urgent Constitutional Changes Demanded by Chief Justice Clark, 81; A Vital Service to Democracy, 83; The Courts, The Plutocracy and the People; or, the Age-Long Attempt to Bulwark Privilege and Despotism, 84; Criticism of the Courts by Statesmen and the Judiciary, 85; The Fallibility of Judicial Decisions, 86; The President, the Rate Bill, and the Public-Service Companies, 87; The Denver Election: The Latest Illustration of Colossal Frauds and Criminality on the Part of Private Corporations Seeking Public Franchises, 92; Municipal-Ownership Victory in Omaha, 94; Utilization of Sewage by Pasadena, California, 95; The French Election Another Great Triumph for Progressive Democracy, 96; The Most Important Recent Work on Higher Criticism, 97; An Australian Artist Who Believes in Art for Moral Progress, 136; Triumphant Democracy; or, the Overthrow of Privileged Classes by Popular Rule, 186; A Practical Demonstration of the Unsoundness of the Arguments Against Direct-Legislation, 186; A Striking Illustration of the Difference Between Government by Monopolies and Privileged Interests and Government by and for the People, 187; The Great Victory as Viewed in Oregon, 188; The Honest and Dishonest Advocates of Mr. Bryan's Candidacy, 189; The Real Friends of Mr. Bryan, 189; Mr. Bryan on Private Monopoly, 190; The Vision the Vital Breath of a Nation, 191; The Lowering of Ideals in the Political and Business World and What It Portends, 191; Social Degradation, 192; The Battle for Good Government in Pennsylvania, 192; Senator La Follette: A Thorn in the Flesh of the Grafters and Corruptionists, 193; Jail Sentences for Rebaters and Ice-Barons a Hopeful Inauguration of the Campaign for Civic Righteousness, 194; How Mexico's Statesmanship Has Striven to Place the Interests of the People Above All Concern of Special Classes, 194; Results of the Governmental Ownership and Operation of the Telegraph in Mexico, 195; Universal Suffrage in Finland, 195; Jaurès and Clemenceau on the Demands of Socialism and Radical Democracy, 195; New Zealand's Late Premier and His Work for Progressive Popular Government, 196; Outline of the Great Premier's Life, 197; Mr. Seddon on Public Ownership of Railways, 198; An American Journalist on New Zealand's Contribution to Democratic Progress Under Premier Seddon, 199; New Zealand Under Capitalistic Rule, 199; The Magnificent Success of the English Coöperative Society, 200; Mr. Gray's Plea for Closer Union and a Programme Instinct with Moral Idealism, 200; College Cooperative Stores in America, 201; Alfred Russel Wallace: Scientist, Philosopher and Humanitarian, 202; W. Gordon Nye: A Cartoonist of Jeffersonian Democracy, 238; An Artist's Message on Christ and Conventional Christianity, 248; The Renaissance of Democracy in the New World, 299; The Popular Revolt Against Corporation and Boss-Rule, 299; The Nation-Wide Enthusiasm for Bryan and La Follette Symptomatic of the Great Popular Awakening, 299; The Union of the Forces of Civic Righteousness in Pennsylvania, 300; John B. Moran and Progressive Democracy in Massachusetts, 300; Moran's Declaration of Principles, 301; The Labor Giant Enters the Political Arena, 302; The Privileged Interests that Prey on the People and Their Upholders, 303; Further Revelations of the Beef-Trust's Crime Against the People, 303; Character of Armour's Canned Goods Officially Exposed, 305; Wholesale Condemnation of Beef-Packers' Meat Products in Pennsylvania, 305; Adulterated Food Bearing Government Inspection Stamp, 306; Speaker Cannon as the Friend of Privileged Interests and the Money-Controlled Machines, 307; Secretary Taft's False Witness in Regard to Mr. Bryan and the Trusts, 308; The Nullification of the Ends of Free Government Through Judicial Usurpations in the Interests of Corporate Wealth, 309; A Leading Republican Journal on the Colorado Supreme Court, 309; A Great Law Journal Arraigns the Colorado Supreme Court, 311; Extension of Municipal Trading in Old-World Cities, 313; Unqualified Success of Municipal Bakeries in Sicily, 314; The Vindication of Dreyfus, 314; Russia Again in the Shadow of Medieval Despotism, 315; Mr. Markham's Noble Poem on Russia, 317; Prime-Minister Ward on New Zealand's Progress, 317; Sir Joseph Ward: The New Prime-Minister of New Zealand, 317; Practical Results of Public Ownership in New Zealand, 318; Notable Example of Extension of Government Functions in the Interests of All the People, 318; The Land-Value Tax, 319; Radical Fiscal Reforms, 319; Graduated Income Tax, 320; The Settled Ideal of New Zealand's Statesmen, 320; The Transformation of the Alien Into the American Citizen, 320; G. R. Spencer: A Cartoonist of Progressive Democracy and Aggressive Honesty, 351; Hon. George Fred. Williams and Winston Churchill: Two New England Defenders of the People's Cause, 405; The Present Battle Between Democracy and Plutocracy Within the Democratic Party, 405; Leaders of True Democracy, 406; Hon. George Fred. Williams, of Massachusetts, 406; Mr. Williams on the Master-Issues of the Present, 409; Winston Churchill, 410; Mr. Churchill's Exposures are of National Concern, 410; The Master-Issue Clearly Stated by the Novelist-Statesman, 411; Attempted

Bribery by Pass, 411; The Politicians Wearing the Corporation Collar Fight Shy of the Statesman with a Conscience, 412; A Striking Illustration of How Public-Service Corporations Rule the People, 412; Fruits of the Feudalism of Privilege, 414; A Striking Official Revelation Disclosing Widespread Uninvited Poverty in Our Heyday of Trust and Monopolistic Prosperity, 414; A Striking Case of Corporation Contempt of the People and Their Government, Aided by the Courts, 416; The Battle Between the Plutocracy and the Democracy in the Democratic Party of Massachusetts, 418; The Struggle for the Redemption of the Republic, 420; Mr. Bryan's Triumphant Home-Coming and His Great Address at Madison Square Garden, 420; The People's Battle in Wisconsin, 421; A Practical Illustration of the Vital Difference Between a Free State and a Class-Ruled Commonwealth, 422; Mr. Ralph Albertson on the National Federation for People's Rule, 423; Municipal-Ownership in the Old World, 424; Mr. McClellan on Public Ownership in Germany, 424; Another Victorious Year for Glasgow's Municipal Street-Railways, 424; The Disposal of Glasgow's Telephones to the Government and How the Capitalistic Press Has Misrepresented the Case, 425; The Struggle Between Light and Darkness in Foreign Lands, 426; The Recognition of Civil Marriages by the Spanish Government, 426; Mr. Morley's Loose Use of Terms in Discussing England's Socialistic Experiments in India, 426; Marked Success of Governmental Ownership and Operation of Railways in India, 426; Extreme Poverty of India's Millions, 427; Jean Jaurès' Vision of the Socialist State, 428; Richard Seddon: Democratic Statesman and Master-Builder of a Liberal Commonwealth, 449; The Colorado Conflict and Its Grave Significance, 527; The Clear-Cut Issue Between Democracy and Plutocracy, 527; Colorado Democracy Drives the Corruptionists and Grafters From the Party, 528; The Platform and the Ticket, 528; The Republican Party Abjectly Surrenders to the Throne-Powers, 530; The Division in the Radical Forces Threatens the Success of the People, 531; Why the Union of All Friends of Free Government is Imperatively Demanded, 532; Henry Cabot Lodge as an Apostle of the Autocratic Money-Controlled Machine and the Foe of Popular Rule, 534; Senator Lodge: A Man of Wealth and Education, 534; Senator Lodge's Fatal Choice After Entering Political Life, 534; Mr. Lodge's Open Opposition to Popular Rule, 535; The Senator as an Upholder of Autocracy and Class-Rule, 539; Senator Lodge's Opposition to Public Ownership, 539; The Real Significance of the Wisconsin Primaries, 541; An Analysis of the Result, 541; The Two Candidates, 542; The Stand Taken by Senator La Follette, 543; Will the Cause of Reform Go Forward? 543; Senator La Follette's Prestige, 544; Evil Results Already Seen, 544; The Battle Between Plutocracy and Popular Rule in Various Commonwealths, 545; The Political Situation in New York, 545; The Political Situation in Massachusetts, 548; Mr. Churchill and the New Hampshire Republican Convention, 549; Why Robert Baker Should be Elected to Congress, 549; The Healthy Growth of Coöperation in Great Britain, 556; The Railways, the Trusts and the People, 557; The Conviction of the New York Central Railroad and Its Significance, 642; The Story of the Sinister Attempt of a Confederacy of the Great Criminals to Debauch Free Government in the Interests of the Feudalism of Privileged Wealth, 642; The Masterly Arraignment of the Great Criminals by Judge Holt, 643; Some of the Great Law-Breakers, 644; The Most Dangerous Criminals in America, 644; The Unhappy Plight of Two Distinguished Defenders of National Honor and "Safe, Sane and Conservative" Politics, 645; The True Secret of Mr. Bryan's Great Popularity With the People, 645; The Election, 646; The General Result, 646; The Congressional Election, 647; The Result in Massachusetts, 647; The New York Election, 648; The Result in Wisconsin, 650; Direct-Legislation Triumphs in Delaware, 650; Mr. Benson on Secretary Root's Baseless Attack on Mr. Hearst, 650; Elihu Root: A Word About the Man Who Baselessly Maligned Mr. Hearst, 652; Public Ownership of Natural Monopolies, 653; Mayor Dunne on the Chicago Street-Car Situation, 653; Three Views on the Railroad Question, 653; Hon. S. M. Owen's Plan, 654; Mr. Louis F. Post's Proposition, 655; Hon. George Fred. Williams' Views, 655; Leading Republican Senators on Record as to the Advantages of Government Ownership of Railways, 655; Sound Morality versus Morbid Pruriency, 656; Mr. Comstock Not Wanted at the Mothers' Congress, 656; The National Purity Federation Holds a Remarkable Meeting, 657; England's Revenue from Her Income-Tax, 659; Clemenceau Selects a Progressive Democratic Cabinet, 659; Porfirio Diaz: The Maker of Modern Mexico, 661.

Folk, Governor Joseph W., 602.

France, Church and State in, 627.

Frank, Henry, The Thaw-White Tragedy, 262.

Freedom's Most Decisive Victory in the Old World, 96.

Free Government and How to Preserve It, A Fundamental Thinker on, 76; Why the Union of All Friends of, Is Imperatively Demanded, 532; The Story of the Sinister Attempt of a Confederacy of Great Criminals to Debauch, in the Interests of Privileged Wealth, 642.

Free Institutions, The Struggle for the Preservation and Maintenance of, in the Republic, 76.

Free State, A, and a Class-Ruled Commonwealth, The Difference Between, 422.

French, Willard, Child-Labor, Compulsory Education and Race-Suicide, 35.

French Election, The, Another Great Triumph for Progressive Democracy, 96.

Fruits of the Feudalism of Privilege, 414.

Gaffney, Fannie Humphreys, Liberty, Law and Labor, 285.

Garvin, L. F. C., Solving the Labor Problem, 10.

German System of National Education, The University of Berlin and the Proposed Changes in the, 345.

Germany, Mr. MacClellan on Public Ownership in, 424.

Glasgow's Municipal Street-Railways, Another Victorious Year for, 424.

Glasgow's Telephones, The Disposal of, to the Government, and How the Capitalistic Press Has Misrepresented the Case, 425.

Good Government, The Battle for, in Pennsylvania, 192.
Gougar, Helen M., Shall Educated Chinamen Be Welcomed to Our Shores? 506.
Government by Monopolies and Privileged Interests and Government by and for the People, A Striking Illustration of the Difference Between, 187.
Government, Good, The Battle for, in Pennsylvania, 192.
Government Functions, Notable Example of the Extension of, in the Interests of the People, 318.
Government Inspection Stamp, Adulterated Food Bearing, 306.
Government-Ownership, Is Railroad Rate-Regulation a Step to? 622; of Railways, Leading Republican Senators on Record as to the Advantages of, 000.
Government-Ownership and Operation of Railways in India, Marked Success of, 427.
Governmental-Ownership and Operation of the Telegraph in Mexico, Results of the, 195.
Gray, Mr., His Plea for Closer Union and a Programme Instinct with Moral Idealism, 200.
Grafters and Corruptionists, Senator La Follette: A Thorn in the Flesh of the, 193; Corruptionists and, Colorado Democracy Drives the, from the Party, 528.
Grimke, Mr.: A Criticism of His Paper, 127.
Gruhl, Edwin F., Is Railroad Rate-Regulation a Step to Government Ownership? 622.
Hawkins, Chauncey J., Mr. H. G. Wells: The Prophet of the New Order, 143.
Hearst, Mr., Mr. Benson on Secretary Root's Baseless Attack on, 650; Elihu Root: A Word About the Man Who Baselessly Maligned, 652.
Henderson, Archibald, Aspects of Contemporary Fiction, 1.
Hendrickson, Finley C., Shall Prohibition Be Given a Fair Trial? 168.
Heredity, Byron: A Study in, 175.
Heresy in the Episcopal Church, 370.
Ice-Age, Our Next, 148.
Ideals, The Lowering of, in the Business and Political World, and What It Portends, 191.
Income-Tax, Graduated, 320; England's Revenue From Her, 659.
India, Mr. Morley's Loose Use of Terms in Discussing England's Socialistic Experiments in, 426; Marked Success of Governmental Ownership and Operation of Railways in, 426.
India's Millions, Extreme Poverty of, 427.
Individualism Through Socialism: A Reply to Hon. William J. Bryan, 359.
Individualist, Common Ground for Socialist and, 157.
Insanity, Unrecognized: A Public and Individual Danger, 508.
In the Mirror of the Present, 61, 186, 299, 405, 527, 642.
Investigating Committee, Report of the President's, 68.
Jail Sentences for Rebaters and Ice-Barons a Hopeful Inauguration of the Campaign for Civic Righteousness, 194.
James, George Wharton, San Francisco and Her Great Opportunity, 113.
Jaurès, Jean, His Vision of the Socialist State, 428.
Jaurès and Clemenceau on the Demands of Socialism and Radical Democracy, 195.
Jesus, Economics of, 234.
Judicial Decisions, The Fallibility of, 86.
Judicial Usurpations in the Interests of Privileged Wealth, The Nullification of the Ends of Free Government Through, 309.
Jungle, The, Causes the President to Investigate Packingtown, 66.
Kassel, Charles, Byron: A Study in Heredity, 175.
Kilgore, Katherine, Heresy in the Episcopal Church, 370.
King and a Fool, A, 398.
Kingdom, The Bringing of the, 631.
Labor Giant, The, Enters the Political Arena, 302.
Labor Problem, Solving the, 10.
La Follette, Senator: A Thorn in the Flesh of the Grafters and Corruptionists, 193; Bryan and, The Nation-Wide Enthusiasm for, Symptomatic of the Great Popular Awakening, 299; The Stand Taken by, 543; His Prestige, 544.
Land-Value Tax, The, 319.
Law-Breakers, Some of the Great, 644.
Legislation, Direct, Triumphs in Delaware, 650.
Library, Our National, 277.
Liberty, Law and Labor, 285.
Liberty of the Press, Our Vanishing, 617.
Liquor Problem, Social Conditions and the, 275.
Liquor Traffic, Socialism and the, 395.
Literature, American, The Spirit of, 121.
Lodge, Henry Cabot, as an Apostle of the Autocratic Money-Controlled Machine and the Foe of Popular Rule, 534.
Lodge, Senator: A Man of Wealth and Education, 534; His Fatal Choice After Entering Political Life, 534; His Open Opposition to Popular Rule, 535; as an Upholder of Autocracy and Class-Rule, 539; His Opposition to Public Ownership, 539.
Lynching, Shall It be Suppressed, and How? 225.
Maine, Present Status of the Referendum Movement in, 516.
Marine Decay, The Cause and Cure of Our, 265.
Markscheffel, Louise, The Right of the Child Not to be Born, 125.
Massachusetts, John B. Moran and Progressive Democracy in, 300; The Battle Between the Plutocracy and the Democracy in the Democratic Party in, 418; The Political Situation in, 548; The Result in, 647.
Master-Issue Clearly Stated by the Novelist-Statesman, The, 411.
Materialistic Commercialism, The Democracy of Darkness: A Fruit of, 191.
Mather, Frank Jewett, An Object-Lesson in the Solution of Race Problems, 364.
MacClellan, Mr., on Public Ownership in Germany, 424.
Mexico, Results of Governmental Ownership and Operation of the Telegraph in, 195; Modern, Porfirio Diaz: The Maker of, 661.
Mexico's Statesmanship, How It Has Striven to Place the Interests of the People Above All Concern of Privileged Classes, 194.
Miller, George McA., Economics of Jesus, 234.
Mills, J. Warner, The Economic Struggle in Colorado, 375.
Miraculous Conception, The Zeit-Geist and the, 480.
Miraculous Forest, The, 297.
Mirror of the Present, In the, 61, 186, 299, 405, 527, 642.

Monopoly, Private, Mr. Bryan on, 190.
Morality, Sound, versus Morbid Pruriency, 656.
Morally-Degrading Influence of Corrupt Wealth in the Educational World, The Latest Example of the, 73.
Moran, John B., and Progressive Democracy in Massachusetts, 300.
Moran's Declaration of Principles, 301.
Morbid Pruriency, Sound Morality versus, 656.
Morley, Mr., His Loose Use of Terms in Discussing England's Socialistic Experiments in India, 426.
Morris, John A., Food Production of the Future, 173.
Morris, William, and Esthetic Socialism, 613.
Mosby, Thomas Speed, The Court is King, 118; The Anglo-Saxon Crime, 370; Governor Joseph W. Folk, 602.
Mothers' Congress, Mr. Comstock Not Wanted at the, 656.
Mountain Robbers, The, the False Great Citizens, and the Plundered People of the Plains, 59.
Muck-Shielding the Hope of the Thieves and Corruptionists, 61.
Municipal Bakeries in Sicily, Unqualified Success of, 314.
Municipal Life, American, Recent Happenings, in 92.
Municipal-Ownership Victory in Omaha, 94.
Municipal-Ownership in the Old World, 424.
Municipal-Ownership in Seattle, The Defeat of, 550.
Municipal Street-Railways, Glasgow's, Another Victorious Year for, 424.
Municipal Trading in Old-World Cities, Extension of, 313.
Munro, Frank, An Unconscious Return to Tyranny, 295.
National Federation for People's Rule, Mr. Ralph Albertson on the, 423.
National Library, Our, 277.
National Purity Federation, The, Holds a Remarkable Meeting, 657.
Nationalization of Railways in Switzerland, The, 577.
Natural Monopolies, Public Ownership of, 653.
Nelson, N. O., Practical Coöperator, and the Great Work He is Accomplishing for Human Uplift-ment, 463.
New Hampshire Republican Convention, Mr. Churchill and the, 549.
New York, The Political Situation in, 545.
New York Central Railroad, The Conviction of, and Its Significance, 642.
New York Election, The, 648.
New Zealand Under Capitalistic Rule, 199; Sir Joseph Ward: The New Prime-Minister of, 317; Practical Results of Public Ownership in, 318.
New Zealand's Contribution to Democratic Progress Under Premier Seddon, 199.
New Zealand's Late Premier and His Work for Progressive Popular Government, 196.
New Zealand's Progress, Prime-Minister Ward on, 317.
New Zealand's Statesmen, The Settled Ideal of, 320.
Nichols, Abner W., Present Status of the Referendum Movement in Maine, 516.
Noa, Frederic M., Ayacucho: The Spanish Waterloo of South America, 255; Sarmiento: The Great South American Statesman and Educator, 390; William Wheelwright: The Yankee Pioneer of Modern Inndustry in South America, 591.
Nude Lips, 638.
Nye, W. Gordon: A Cartoonist of Jeffersonian Democracy, 238.
Omaha, Municipal-Ownership Victory in, 94.
Oregon, The Great Victory as Viewed in, 188.
Orton, Jesse F., The Bringing of the Kingdom, 631.
Other Lands, In, 659.
Owen, Hon. S. M., His Plan, 654.
Packingtown, The Jungle Causes the President to Investigate, 66.
Parsons, Professor Frank, on a Recent Municipal Contest and the Tactics of the Corporation Press, 550; The Defeat of Municipal-Ownership in Seattle, 550; Delirium Tremens of the Corporation Press, 550; The Nationalization of Railways in Switzerland, 577.
Parting of the Ways, The, 55.
Pasadena, California, Utilization of Sewage by, 95.
Pass, Attempted Bribery by, 411.
Pearson, Harlan C., The Woman With the Knitting, 518.
Pennsylvania, The Battle for Good Government in, 192; The Union of the Forces of Civic Righteousness in, 300; Wholesale Condemnation of Beef-Packers' Meat Products in, 305.
People's Battle in Wisconsin, The, 421.
Petersen, Henrik G., Unrecognized Insanity: A Public and Individual Danger, 508.
Picturesque Rothenburg, 128.
Platform and the Ticket, The, 528.
Plutocracy, The Present Battle Between Democracy and, Within the Democratic Party, 405; The Battle Between the Democracy and the, in the Democratic Party of Massachusetts, 418; The Clear-Cut Issue Between Democracy and, 527; and Popular Rule, The Battle Between, in Various Commonwealths, 545.
Plutocratic Press, The, Becomes a Voice for the Beef-Trust, 67.
Poisoners of the Nation's Food, Wholesale, The Campaign Against the, 66.
Political and Business World, The Lowering of Ideals in the, and What It Portends, 191.
Political Arena, The Labor Giant Enters the, 302.
Political Situation in New York, The, 545; in Massachusetts, 548.
Politicians Wearing the Corporation Collar Fight Shy of the Statesman With a Conscience, 412.
Pollard, Judge William Jefferson: A Practical Idealist Who Is Achieving a Great Work in Redeeming Drunkards, 14.
Polygamy and the Constitution, 492.
Pomeroy, Eltweed, The Recall, 45.
Popular Revolt Against Corporation and Boss-Rule, The, 299.
Popular Rule, Triumphant Democracy; or, the Overthrow of Privileged Classes by, 186; The War for the Reclamation of, 192; Henry Cabot Lodge as an Apostle of the Autocratic Money-Controlled Machine and the Foe of, 534; Mr. Lodge's Opposition to, 535; The Battle Between Plutocracy and, in Various Commonwealths, 545.
Post, Louis F., His Proposition, 655.
Postal Savings-Banks, Bankers Oppose: We Also Understand that Burglars are Opposed to Having Police, 552.
Poverty, Widespread Uninvited, in Our Heyday of Trust and Monopolistic Prosperity, A Striking Official Revelation Disclosing, 414.

Premier's Life, The Great, Outline of, 197.
Present, In the Mirror of the, 61, 186, 299, 405, 527, 642.
Presidency, Mr. Bryan and the, 189.
President, the Rate Bill and the Public-Service Companies, The, 87.
Press, Our Vanishing Liberty of the, 617.
Primary Cause of Alternate Activity and Depression in Trade, The, 292.
Primer of Direct-Legislation, A, 45.
Privilege and Despotism, The Courts, the Plutocracy and the People; or, the Age-Long Attempt to Bulwark, 84.
Privilege, Fruits of the Feudalism of, 414.
Privileged Classes, Triumphant Democracy; or, the Overthrow of, by Popular Rule, 186.
Privileged Interests that Prey on the People, The, and Their Upholders, 303.
Privileged Wealth, The Story of the Sinister Attempt of a Confederacy of Great Criminals to Debauch Free Government in the Interests of the Feudalism of, 642.
Progressive Popular Government, New Zealand's Late Premier and His Work for, 196.
Prohibition, Shall It be Given a Fair Trial? 168.
Proportional Representation, 46.
Prosperity, Trust and Monopolistic, A Striking Official Revelation Disclosing Widespread Uninvited Poverty in Our Heyday of, 414.
Public Ownership, of Railways, Mr. Seddon on, 198; in New Zealand, Practical Results of, 318; in Germany, Mr. MacClellan on, 424; Senator Lodge's Opposition to, 539; Allan L. Benson on, 552; versus Private Ownership of Public Utilities, 555; of Natural Monopolies, 653.
Public-Service Companies, The President, the Rate Bill and the, 87.
Public-Service Corporations, A Striking Illustration of How They Rule the People, 412.
Public Utilities, Public Ownership versus Private Ownership of, 555.
Purity Federation, The National, Holds a Remarkable Meeting, 657.
Race Problems, An Object-Lesson in the Solution of, 364.
Race-Suicide, Child-Labor, Compulsory Education and, 35; Broad Aspects of, 607.
Radical Forces, The Division in the, Threatens the Success of the People, 557.
Railroads, Stock-Gamblers as Managers of, 272.
Railroad Rate-Regulation, Is It a Step to Government-Ownership? 622.
Railroad Question, Three Views of the, 653.
Railways, Mr. Seddon on Public Ownership of, 198; the Trusts and the People, The, 557; in Switzerland, The Nationalization of the, 577; Leading Republican Senators on Record as to the Advantages of Government Ownership of, 655.
Rambles in Switzerland, 26.
Rappaport, Philip, Social Conditions and the Liquor Problem, 275.
Recall, The, 45.
Redemption of the Republic, The Struggle for the, 420.
Redfield, Edward W.: An Artist of Winter-Locked Nature, 20.
Referendum Movement in Maine, Present Status of the, 516.
Reform, Will the Cause of, Go Forward? 543.
Republic, The Struggle for the Redemption of the, 420.
Republican Convention, Mr. Churchill and the New Hampshire, 549.
Republican Journal on the Colorado Supreme Court, A Leading, 309.
Republican Party, The, Abjectly Surrenders to the Throne-Powers, 530.
Republican Senators, Leading, on Record as to the Advantages of Government Ownership of Railways, 655.
Restelle, William, The Costliness of War, 337.
Result, The General, 646; in Massachusetts, The, 647; in Wisconsin, The, 650.
Right of the Child Not to Be Born, The, 125.
Robinson, Edgar E., Is Railroad Rate-Regulation a Step to Government Ownership? 622.
Romieux, J., Church and State in France, 626.
Root, Elihu: A Word About the Man Who Baselessly Maligned Mr. Hearst, 652.
Root, Secretary, Mr. Benson on His Baseless Attack on Mr. Hearst, 650.
Rothenburg, Picturesque, 128.
Russia Again in the Shadow of Medieval Despotism, 315; Mr. Markham's Noble Poem on, 317.
San Francisco and Her Great Opportunity, 113.
Sarmiento: The Great South American Statesman and Educator, 390.
Schroeder, Theodore, Polygamy and the Constitution, 492; Our Vanishing Liberty of the Press, 617.
Seattle, The Defeat of Municipal-Ownership in, 550.
Seddon, Premier Richard: Democracy's Lost Leader, 196; on Public Ownership of Railways, 198; An American Journalist on New Zealand's Contribution to Democratic Progress Under, 199; Democratic Statesman and Master-Builder of a Liberal Commonwealth, 449.
Sewage, Utilization of, by Pasadena, California, 95.
Shall Educated Chinamen be Welcomed to Our Shores? 506.
Shall Lynching Be Suppressed, and How? 225.
Shall Prohibition Be Given a Fair Trial? 168.
Sheldon, Winthrop D., Shall Lynching Be Suppressed, and How? 225.
Shufeldt, R. W., A Waning of the Interest in Comparative Anatomy in This Country, 629.
Sicily, Unqualified Success of Municipal Bakeries in, 314.
Sinclair, Mr., His Second Statement to the Public, 69.
Smith, Lewis Worthington, Governor Albert B. Cummins: A Statesman Who Places the Interests of the People Above the Demands of Privileged Classes, 38.
Social Conditions and the Liquor Problem, 275.
Social Degradation, 192.
Socialism and Radical Democracy, Jaurès and Clemenceau on the Demands of, 195; Individualism Through: A Reply to Hon. William J. Bryan, 359; and the Liquor Traffic, 395; William Morris and Esthetic, 613.
Socialist and Individualist, Common Ground for, 157.
Socialist State, Jean Jaurès' Vision of the, 428.
Solving the Labor Problem, 10.
Sound Morality versus Morbid Pruriency, 656.
South Amer'ca, Ayacucho: The Spanish Waterloo

of, 255; William Wheelwright: The Yankee Pioneer of Modern Industry in, 591.
South American Statesman and Educator, Sarmiento: The Great, 390.
Spanish Government, The Recognition of Civil Marriages by the, 426.
Spencer, G. R., A Cartoonist of Progressive Democracy and Aggressive Honesty, 357.
Spirit of American Literature, The, 121.
Stock-Gamblers as Managers of Railroads, 272.
Stoy, Elinor H., Child-Labor, 584.
Suffrage, Universal, in Finland, 195.
Switzerland, Rambles in, 26; The Nationalization of Railways in, 577.
Taft, Secretary, His False Witness in Regard to Mr. Bryan and the Trusts, 308.
Tax, The Land-Value, 319; Graduated Income, 320.
Thaw-White Tragedy, The, 262.
Theological Thought, Dr. Bisbee on Progress in, 660.
Thieves and Corruptionists, Muck-Shielding the Hope of the, 61.
Throne-Powers, The Republican Party Abjectly Surrenders to the, 530.
Townsend, Charles, A King and a Fool, 398.
Trade, The Primary Cause of Alternate Activity and Depression in, 292.
Transformation of the Alien Into the American Citizen, The, 320.
Trask, Katrina, The Virgin Birth, 141.
Tried by Fire, 178.
Two Candidates, The, 542.
Tyranny, An Unconscious Return to, 295.
Tyson, Robert, Proportional Representation, 46; The Absolute-Majority Method, 49.
Unconscious Return to Tyranny, An, 295.
Unhappy Plight of Two Distinguished Defenders of National Honor and "Safe Sane and Conservative" Politics, The, 645.
Unrecognized Insanity: A Public and Individual Danger, 508.
Vanishing Liberty of the Press, Our, 617.
Virgin Birth, The, 141.
Vision the Vital Breath of a Nation, The, 191.
Vrooman, Carl, Rambles in Switzerland, 26.
Vrooman, Frank, Our National Library, 277.
Wallace, Alfred Russel: Scientist, Philosopher and Humanitarian, 202.
War for the Reclamation of Popular Rule, The, 192; The Costliness of, 337.
Ward, Sir Joseph: The New Prime-Minister of New Zealand, 317; Prime-Minister, on New Zealand's Progress, 317.
Watts, William H., Socialism and the Liquor Traffic, 395.
Wealth, Consumption of: Individual and Collective, 497.
Webb, Winifred, The Spirit of American Literature, 121.
Wells, Mr. H. G., The Prophet of the New Order, 143.
What Will Be the Outcome? 71.
Wheelwright, William: The Yankee Pioneer of Modern Industry in South America, 591.
Will, Thomas Elmer, Individualism Through Socialism: A Reply to Hon. William J. Bryan, 359.
Williams, George Fred., and Winston Churchill: Two New England Defenders of the People's Cause, 405; of Massachusetts, 406; on the Master Issues of the Present, 409; His Views, 655.
Wisconsin, The People's Battle in, 421; The Result in, 650.
Wisconsin Primaries, The Real Significance of the, 541.
Woman With the Knitting, The, 518.
Work, Concerning Those Who, 487.
World, The New York, on One Phase of the Scandal, 71.
Zeit-Geist and the Miraculous Conception, The 480.
Zeller, Fredericka C., The Miraculous Forest, 297.